

COMMENCEMENT DECORUM POLICY

Approved by Administrative Council 9/9/13

Effective date 9/9/13

Introduction:

The Roseman University of Health Sciences Commencement ceremony is a festive occasion. The festivity manifests itself in many ways including the dress of the students; the faculty adorned in academic regalia; and the warmth, joy and satisfaction of accomplishment.

The ceremony is marked by dignity and seriousness as the conferring of degrees signifies long, hard work on the part of everyone involved including students, faculty members, administrators, parents, spouses, and other family members. Because of this, all attending parties are expected to maintain decorum consistent with the occasion.

Rules of Decorum and Courtesy During the Commencement

Ceremony: For All

Mobile devices should be placed in “silent” mode or turned off during the entire ceremony.

All rules of the graduation venue, not addressed in this document, must be followed. Signs, fireworks, bottles, beach balls, cans, drugs, and alcohol are strictly prohibited. Noisemakers, including but not limited to, air horns, trumpets, and pots and pans, are strictly prohibited.

The proper order of procession to the stage is students followed by faculty members followed by the stage party.

The proper order of recession from the stage is stage party followed by students followed by faculty members. The Roseman University of Health Sciences is an equal opportunity institution. In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. These areas are not appropriate for strollers and/or large bags. One additional person may be seated in this area with the person in need of disability seating. Graduates should contact the student services office of the applicable campus to provide notification that Graduates must arrive at least 45 minutes prior to the scheduled start of the ceremony.

Graduates are expected to refrain from disruptive behavior.

The graduation tassel is initially placed on the right hand side of the cap and moved to the left hand side when the graduate is instructed to move it.

The only items permitted as a part of the graduation regalia are those issued by Roseman University of Health Sciences. No adornments to the graduation regalia are permitted.

Examples of adornments include, but are not limited to, tape or writing on caps, leis or other necklaces worn outside the robe, and corsages and boutonnieres.

Graduates should not carry any items with them in their hands as they process to their seats.

Graduates are expected to wear appropriate clothing beneath the regalia. Business casual attire, at a minimum, is expected.

Graduates are expected to return to their seats after the on-stage presentation and remain seated for the duration of the ceremony.

Graduates will not be permitted to.